

Newsletter #3, June 2022

Dear Readers,

Welcome to the 3rd newsletter of our SAGA project. In the past few months, the partnership have worked hard to launch the SAGA learning programme online! Here you can find the learning content we have been developing in the past year, which exist out of 4 modules;

- Inspiration
- Defining the social business
- Functional competences
- Social competences

The platform is structured in such a way, all modules and learning content can be easily accessed for free.

Curious? Take a look at it yourself! The platform is in the final test phase, so in case you feel like helping us...

Contact STRIA (innovacio@ddriu.hu) for your input or go to www.projectsaga.eu for more information!

THE LEARNING PROGRAMME

The learning programme exist out of 4 modules. In the first one you find different inspirational examples of social entrepreneurship in your region. Module 2 is all about the starting phase of a social business. To learn more about functional competences to use in day-to-day work, you should read module 3. The final module is about social competences; co-creation, leadership and more! Important to know is that all modules can be read without following a specific order. Ready? Go to the learning programme and find out!

WHATS NEXT?

In the coming months we proceed with organizing events for stakeholders to gain feedback about our SAGA materials so far. This will be done by organizing workshops and interactive sessions, which feedback will be adopted in the current learning materials. Stay tuned for more info on the events coming soon!

The SAGA team wishes you a nice summer!
